EXPLANATIONS

FORM B9A (12/1/09)

Filing of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the front side (or the existing case under another chapter has been converted to chapter 7).
Creditors Generally May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code §362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures; and garnishing or deducting from the debtor's wages. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Presumption of Abuse	If the presumption of abuse arises, creditors may have the right to file a motion to dismiss the case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The debtor may rebut the presumption by showing special circumstances.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtor (both spouses in a joint case) must be present with required original government-issued photo identification and proof of the social security number (or, if applicable, Tax ID) at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date without further notice. As mandated by the Department of Homeland Security, ALL visitors (except minors accompanied by an adult) to any federal building or courthouse, must present a current, valid, government issued photo identification (e.g., drivers license, state identification card, passport, or immigration card).
Do Not File a Proof of Claim at This Time	There does not appear to be any property available to the trustee to pay creditors. You therefore should not file a proof of claim at this time. If it later appears that assets are available to pay creditors, you will be sent another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim, and telling you the deadline for filing your proof of claim. If this case is converted from chapter 13, pursuant to Local Rules 1019-1(E) and 3002-1(A), it has been designated as a no asset case at this time. If this notice is mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline.
Discharge of Debts	The debtor is seeking a discharge of most debts, which may include your debt. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor. If you believe that the debtor is not entitled to receive a discharge under Bankruptcy Code §727(a) or that a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code §523(a)(2), (4), or (6), you must start a lawsuit by filing a complaint by the "Deadline to File a Complaint Objecting to Discharge of the Debtor or to Determine Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front side. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the complaint and the required filing fee by that Deadline. Writing a letter to the court or judge is not sufficient. An adversary complaint must be filed in accordance with the applicable rules. The discharge will not be issued until the Official Bankruptcy Form "Debtor's Certification of Completion of Postpetition Instructional Course Concerning Personal Financial Management" is filed by the debtor.
Exempt Property	The debtor is permitted by law to keep certain property as exempt. Exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. The debtor must file a list of all property claimed as exempt. If you believe that an exemption claimed by the debtor is not authorized by law, you may file an objection to that exemption. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objections by the "Deadline to Object to Exemptions" listed on the front side.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Documents filed conventionally in paper may be filed at any bankruptcy clerk's office location. Documents may be viewed in electronic format at any clerk's office public terminal (at no charge for viewing) or via PACER ON THE INTERNET (charges apply). Case filing information and unexpired deadline dates can be obtained by calling the Voice Case Information System: (305)536-5979 or (800)473-0226.
Creditor with a Foreign Address	Consult a lawyer familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions regarding your rights in this case.
Abandonment of Property by Trustee	Pursuant to Local Rule 6007-1(A), the trustee will abandon at the meeting of creditors all property that the trustee has determined is of no value to the estate and file a report within 2 business days. Objections to the report must be filed within 14 days of the meeting.
Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing	Parties can now choose to receive all notices (including attachments) served by the clerk's office electronically instead of via US mail. For information on or to register for this free service, contact the Bankruptcy Noticing Center at www.ebnuscourts.com
Translating Services	Language interpretation of the meeting of creditors will be provided to the debtor at no cost, upon request to the trustee, through a telephone interpreter service. Persons with communications disabilities should contact the U.S. Trustee's office to arrange for translating services at the meeting of creditors.
